FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (August 19, 2020) – Four Port Authority employees tested positive for COVID-19 since last week's update, bringing the total number of employee cases to 43.

Case 40

A bus operator who works out of Port Authority's Ross garage, this employee last worked on Monday, August 10. This case was reported on Friday, August 14.

Case 41

An administrative employee who works out of Port Authority's Heinz 57 Center, this employee last worked on Tuesday, August 11. The employee started feeling sick with symptoms of the virus that evening and has been in a medically directed precautionary self-quarantine since that time

Case 42

An administrative employee who works out of Port Authority's Heinz 57 Center, this employee last worked on Wednesday, August 12. The employee has been in a medically directed precautionary self-quarantine since that time.

Case 43

An employee who works out of Port Authority's Main Shop in the city's Manchester neighborhood, this employee last worked on Friday, August 7. Port Authority learned of this employee's test results on Wednesday, August 19.

Port Authority continues to follow all state and county health department guidelines and as with all previous cases, confidentially reported these cases to the Allegheny County Health Department.

Port Authority reminds all riders that vehicle capacity limits will remain in place so riders can socially distance as much as possible.

Face coverings are required to be worn at stops and stations, when boarding and riding inside vehicles, and at the Downtown Service Center.

###